

All our products with the denomination SISTEMA AZUD, S.A are manufactured according to a controlled production process and are subject to a stringent laboratory control, therefore complying with the quality standards attached to the Quality and Environmental Systems and customer satisfaction.

Our organization SISTEMA AZUD, S.A. has always sought after the highest quality technical standards in compliance with the ISO 9001 requirements. We firmly uphold our commitments with Environment therefore we have created a Management System that has been certified in accordance with the ISO 14001 Standard.

SISTEMA AZUD, S.A. manufactures different types of semiautomatic screen filters under AZUD SPIRAL CLEAN name, according to the specifications of the Official Technical Files (FTO), where we develop all instructions and specifications that the personnel of production must carry out and also the Control Quality.

According to its pressure characteristics, volume and fluid, all articles fall within the scope of article 3.3 of Directive 97/23/EC, reason why they should be designed and manufactured according to the good manufacturing practices of the technique used. Appropriate use instructions should be attached to the equipment and they must carry the opportune marks that allow to identify the manufacturer. These articles cannot be marked CE.

The Company can be asked for any additional explanation about the scope of this declaration as the requirements of the Standards and Directives.

Murcia, June 17th of 2015

Central Department of Quality and Environment

SISTEMA AZUD S.A.

azud@azud.com - www.azud.com